

Does Our School District Have A Systemic Approach to Reducing Chronic Absence? A Tool for District Team Self-Assessment

The goal of this self-assessment is to help district leaders identify strengths and opportunities to develop a systemic approach to reducing chronic absence.<sup>1</sup> The tool is built around six key ingredients: capacity building, actionable data, positive engagement, strategic partnerships, adequate & equitable resources, and shared accountability – all of which play an integral role in reducing chronic absence. While assessing your district across all six ingredients, think about the actions your district takes on its own, as well as whether you are making strategic use of community partnerships to advance a tiered approach to improving attendance.

A cross-departmental district team should undertake the following steps at least annually:

- 1) Complete the assessment: Each person should complete the assessment separately to reflect on strengths and opportunities for improvement. Consider adding district leaders from departments not represented on the team such as curriculum and instruction, special education, and operations who can offer valuable perspectives and suggestions.
  - a. If you are meeting in person, give each participant a copy of the self-assessment to complete on their own.
  - b. If you are meeting virtually, create an online version of the self-assessment using applications like Google Forms or Survey Monkey.
- 2) Tabulate the results and share with the team so they can see how everyone responded to each question.
  - a. If you used a paper-and-pencil version, collect/summarize the results using a clean copy of the tool or have participants transfer their responses to a wall chart (see instructions).
  - b. If you used an online version, download/print out the summary reports.
- 3) Discuss: Convene the group to review what the combined data reveal about strengths, gaps, and differences of opinion. Use the results to identify practices that should be continued and to flag potential areas for improvement.
- 4) Set goals: Once team members have agreed on initial priorities, get feedback from key stakeholders, then finalize your goals.
- 5) Make a plan: Assign responsibilities and establish timelines for completion. Use the companion District and Community Planning Tool found here to record your next steps.
- 6) Communicate the results: The team should communicate the results of the assessment with district staff and – if possible and appropriate – schools and community partners, and engage them in executing the improvement plan.

Throughout this document, we refer to the importance of ensuring resources and strategies address the needs of specific student populations and their families. These are groups of students which national and state data show are more likely to be chronically absent such as students with disabilities, living in poverty, from communities of color, facing high mobility or homelessness, or involved in foster care or juvenile justice.

<sup>1</sup> Chronic absence is missing 10% or more of school for any reason – including excused and unexcused absences as well as suspensions. It is different from truancy (unexcused absences) or average daily attendance (how many students typically show up each day) both of which can mask high levels of chronic absence.

CAPACITY BUILDING	Solidly in place	Measurable Progress	Needs Improvement	Urgent Gap	Comments
1. Our district has a cabinet-led team with responsibility for attendance that aligns with existing strategies to improve academic outcomes that represent key departments/functions (e.g., academics, student support, early learning, English language learners, students with disabilities, communications, family engagement, health, technology, college and career, and data management).
2. Our district team has the professional and/or personal experience to identify, discuss and address educational inequities that impact attendance based on race, culture, gender, income and special needs.
3. Our district has a comprehensive attendance policy and practice guidance that outlines regulations, roles and responsibilities for building a positive culture of attendance and promoting early intervention.
4. Our district team builds school level capacity to work as a team to take a multi-tiered approach to address chronic absence by providing guidance, resources, professional development and coaching.
5. Our district team equips all staff, particularly site administrators, with the skills and knowledge to identify, discuss and address educational inequities that impact attendance based on race, culture, gender, income and special needs.
6. Our district works across silos to leverage and maximize district and community resources to improve attendance.

ACTIONABLE DATA	Solidly in Place	Measurable Progress	Needs Improvement	Urgent Gap	Comments
1. Our district team has established protocols for taking attendance/participation on a daily basis for in-person and distance learning and recording it in the district data system.
2. Our district team reviews current and previous year data on attendance/chronic absence for in-person and distance learning at least every two weeks.
3. Our district team ensures that school principals and site-level teams review disaggregated attendance/chronic absence data every two weeks to understand patterns and trends (identify inequities and promising practices).
4. Our district team ensures that schools collect qualitative data about the reasons students miss school (in-person or remote) in order to determine appropriate strategies for removing barriers to attendance.
5. Our district protocols require that contact information for families be updated each semester and that schools have the capacity to update information as needed.
6. Our district team has data to monitor whether every student has access to the technology they need to fully engage in learning.

POSITIVE ENGAGEMENT	Solidly in Place	Measurable Progress	Needs Improvement	Urgent Gap	Comments
1. Our district ensures schools are able to implement a restorative, positive school climate, with differentiated engagement strategies, that mitigate disconnectedness, stress and trauma.
2. Our district ensures staff who conduct outreach and family engagement reflect the race, language and cultures of the students and families enrolled in the district.
3. Our district disseminates clear, engaging, accessible and easy to understand information in families' home languages about attendance, including why it matters, expectations for participation across all modes of learning, and where to obtain support.
4. Our district has protocols and tools for personalized, early outreach and home visits to families when student absences start to add up that ensure our school staff understand the family situation, student assets and needs.
5. Our district school calendar and class and bell schedules are responsive to the needs of students and families (e.g., shift classes to accommodate work schedules, cultural / religious traditions or medical issues).

<h1 style="text-align: center; margin: 0;">STRATEGIC PARTNERSHIPS</h1>	Solidly in Place	Measurable Progress	Needs Improvement	Urgent Gap	Comments
1. Our district leverages its community partnerships to align services and supports to fit the needs, languages and cultures of historically marginalized groups of students and families (e.g., Black, Latino, Native American, Pacific Islander, LGBTQ, immigrants and students with disabilities).
2. Our district has prioritized partnerships with public agencies, community-based nonprofits, and grassroots organizations that have relationships with students and families and include them in the design and implementation of multi-tiered attendance and engagement strategies.
3. Our district uses partnerships to make enrichment opportunities and resources accessible and available to all schools and all students (English language learners, students with disabilities, economically disadvantaged).
4. Our district ensures that all expanded learning providers, including afterschool programming, understand and align their work with multi-tiered attendance and engagement strategies.
5. Our district leverages the resources of businesses, government agencies, and foundations to improve attendance and engagement.

<h2 style="text-align: center;">ADEQUATE &amp; EQUITABLE RESOURCES</h2>	Solidly in Place	Measurable Progress	Needs Improvement	Urgent Gap	Comments
1. Our district has mapped school, district and community-based resources that promote attendance and engagement.
2. Our district has identified gaps in funding and resources that affect attendance districtwide and by school.
3. Our district team has a system in place to hear from and respond to school attendance teams about their needs, service gaps for underserved student groups, and resource implications.
4. Our district prioritizes the distribution of financial, staffing and community resources to schools with higher rates of chronic absence and large populations of vulnerable students.
5. Our district promotes equity by hiring staff and procuring services from community-based partners that reflect the diversity of our student and family population.
6. Our district advocates for funding and resources from government entities at the local, state and national level to address identified gaps in resources, services, and programs.

SHARED ACCOUNTABILITY	Solidly in Place	Measurable Progress	Needs Improvement	Urgent Gap	Comments
1. Our district has set district-wide goals for improving attendance and reducing chronic absence that is embedded into our district improvement plans.
2. Our district ensures that school leaders have set goals and have a data-driven plan to improve attendance and reduce chronic absence that is embedded into their school improvement plans.
3. Our district ensures that data for each student (including attendance, behavior and academic progress) is easy to understand and accessible to families in a timely manner.
4. Our district ensures school leaders use their quantitative and qualitative data to track and monitor progress to determine if attendance improvement strategies have addressed the needs of chronically absent students and their families.
5. Our district and schools have Memorandums of Understanding or Data Sharing Agreements with community partners that specify roles, responsibilities and performance metrics for collective attendance outcomes.
6. Our district publicly shares aggregated attendance, chronic absence, discipline and academic performance data with community partners and stakeholders.
